

COME ON DOWN TO NEIGHBORVILLE

Since the dawn of time, war has raged between the plants and the zombies.
You must pick a side...

Yeah yeah we get it

Come on down to Neighborville
Come on down to Neighborville
We love it here and we know you will
Come on down to Neighborville

We got Acorn
Which is not corn
it couldn't be corn
so let me see corn
Corn, he's a cereal grain
Really great for poppin with butter it's insane
Zombies, Zombies
You better watch out
They're kickin' down doors tryn' to get in your house
Wheelin through the 'hood on rollerskates
Looking for brains all over the place
Yes, she's looking all over the place for your brain
Watch her disappear while we sing the refrain Ready. Set. GOAT.

Everybody sing the chorus
Come on down to Neighborville
Now just the Zombie
Grunt, grunt, grunt
That Zombie has a beautiful voice
That Zombie is the King of Pop
That Zombie has a beautiful voice

Peas shooting peas hitting zombies in the knees
It's a battle in the streets using Photosynthesis
Punch a zombie in the teeth with super-sonic speed
A ninja mushroom? Please! Classic P's versus Zees
Now We're runnin'
Now we're runnin'
Now we're running through the trees and we're crushing enemies and no one ever leaves
So,
Pardon our language, don't mean to be crass
Our town's the best town, let's go kick some grass

Come on down to Neighborville
Come on down to Neighborville
We love it here and we know you will Come down to Neighborville.
Come on down to Neighborville
Come on down to Neighborville
Come on down to Neighborville

NEIGH - BA - VILLE
Grunt, grunt, grunt

PLANTS vs ZOMBIES
